

Media Release

25 March 2009

No Nominations to Date

To date, no nominations have been received to fill the vacancy on the Roxburgh Community Board. A by-election is being held to replace elected member Tom Stevenson who died in last month. Nominations close on Monday 6 April.

Central Otago District Council Electoral Officer Kara Leckie says 'We would urge people to get their nomination in well before that date so that they can be checked for any errors.'

Candidate Information Packs are available at both the Council office and Roxburgh Service Centre.
